

When the summer heat just won't let up, it's time to Cool It on Fogo Island

On Fogo Island, Newfoundland

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Fogo Island, NL., Monday July 31, 2017— Summer cool is a state of mind—one that's effortless to achieve from late August through September with an escape to Fogo Island. It's a time marked by wild flowers, ripe berries, and refreshingly cool salt-air breezes—a welcome relief for visitors who've had enough of over-cranked ACs, parched lawns, and the relentless heat and humidity of packed urban centers. To experience the chill vibe—as much a draw for nature lovers as for harried city dwellers—guests can book Fogo Island Inn's Cool It itinerary from 23 August to 30 September 2017.

This idyllic time allows guests the opportunity to revel in blue skies, hike or bike endless trails, or simply engage in some quiet, cool, and collected contemplation taking in the sight of hand-stitched quilts air-drying on lines and tethered punts bobbing on blue-green North Atlantic waters. Daytime activity options include visiting the iconic Fogo Island Arts' studios, gathering one's thoughts in the rooftop saunas or the Fogo Island Inn library, partaking in traditional crafts with Island artisans, or simply sitting atop a rocky outcrop gazing out at the raw beauty of the ocean. Most evenings, Islanders and visitors alike make their way outdoors to watch the fiery, orange-streaked spectacle of the setting sun unfold on the horizon. A bonfire for guests by the Inn's iconic legs caps off the day.

A three-night Cool It itinerary offers a private punt row for two in the harbour and a bottle of sparkling wine in each guest suite. Rates begin at $1,675 per night and are based on two persons sharing (solo travellers deduct $200; family suites also available). Stays include cultural activities, full use of the Inn's facilities, and all meals in the Inn's award-winning Dining Room.
