

In Search of the Great Fogo Island Easter Egg

On Fogo Island, Newfoundland

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Fogo Island, NL., Wednesday, February 21, 2018 — Easter is a time of renewal on Fogo Island, as this centuries-old community at one of the four corners of the Earth prepares for the coming of Spring Season. Guests are heartfully invited to share in the Easter pastimes and traditions of outport Newfoundland during Fogo Island Inn's In Search of the Great Fogo Island Easter Egg weekend. Festivities begin with guest arrivals on Friday, March 30 and continue through to Monday, April 2, 2018.

The tableau to this vernal celebration is set in the stunning backdrop of Pack Ice Season, when ice pans ebb and flow past the shores of this still-wild world. The extended Easter holiday weekend allows guests to luxuriate indoors at the award-winning Inn, along with a healthy dose of outdoor exploration.

Spring beverages flavoured with local berries and herbs, a fortifying Good Friday seafood supper, and live music in the lounge round out the first evening. Easter Saturday is designed as a leisurely day that includes an Island Orientation with a Community Host, who will share insights about the flora and fauna, history and lore, of this remote island. The afternoon is for relaxing indoors or meandering the windswept landscapes outdoors. Opt for nature pursuits such as hiking or birdwatching, or repose by the fire with a good book. And of course, there are the saunas and rooftop hot tubs to replenish body and soul.

The springtime energy is infectious on Easter Sunday as guests of all ages enthusiastically participate in (or simply observe) the great Fogo Island Inn annual Easter Egg Hunt, winding throughout the Inn's public spaces and the Island's neighbouring landscapes. Staying faithful to true Island tradition, the evening concludes in the Dining Room with an Easter Supper prepared by Executive Chef Jonathan Gushue and his kitchen team.

The full-board, two or three-night itinerary for the In Search of the Great Fogo Island Easter Egg stay includes: all meals, an Island Orientation with a Community Host, and an Easter egg hunt as well as full access to the amenities at the Inn, including a private cinema, heritage library, and rooftop saunas and hot tubs. Family suites are available.
