

Wild, Wild, Wonderful Winter

Available Winter Season and Pack Ice Season
(February 22 - March 31, 2019)

Fogo Island is surrounded by the North Atlantic. Sometimes by ice. Sometimes by icebergs. Yet, it has a way of making you feel warm all over. The Wild, Wild, Wonderful Winter itinerary includes a variety of traditional outpost winter activities including snowshoeing, boil ups, snowmobiling, cabin visits, ice fishing, pond hockey, and even skating on the North Atlantic when conditions are right. For the indoorsy crowd, the Inn has wood-burning stoves, fireplaces, a heritage library, rooftop saunas and hot tubs. And winter is the time for making: quilting, matting, and knitting – it's the perfect time to learn.

*The Wild, Wild, Wonderful Winter itinerary at Fogo Island Inn includes all meals, an Island Orientation with a Community Host, and a range of outdoor activities and excursions. DINNER (LUNCH)

Experience a traditional Island boil-up: a meal served outdoors over an open fire where one can truly soak in the surroundings and enjoy a local Fogo Island custom that may include staples such as salt fish, cod cakes, lassy bread, blackberry cake, jam tart, and strong tea.

Return to the Inn and unwind in the Library delving into the extensive collection of Newfoundlandia, or take time for making and try your hand at traditional crafts and techniques like quilting, matting, or knitting as you sit by a roaring wood-stove.

SUPPER

Feast on a meal prepared by the Inn’s Executive Chef Jonathan Gushue. Relax in the Lounge, being regaled with songs and stories of ice and sealers; tall tales of courage, victory, and loss.
